Miss Olive Rogers, who has been spending a few weeks at the home of Mrs. Hubert Dart of Oakdaie, has returned to her home in Norwich.

Word has been received by triends in the village of the feath of Miss Nellis Scholfield in the early part of June 21 San Pedro, Cal. Miss Scholfield feas 31 years of age and a former resident of Montvills. She left here 21 years age, going to Honoisiu Hawaiian Islands te regain her health. She traveled about among the islands for three or four years, then went to San Francisco, and for the last 16 years she has been living at San Pedro, Cal. Always in poor health, her condition was rendered more so while working in Van Camp's cannery at San Pedro a few years ago, when a man accidentally let fall a case of 100 cans of fish, striking her across her head and shoulders, randering her nearly paralyzed and after five menths of suffering leaving her very lame. Since that time she has worked at the cannery during the season, when her he was able.
